Virginian Carries Off First Money in Half of Benning's Events for Day.

ODDS-ON FAVORITE LOSES

Jack McKeon Runs Away With Bellsnicker—Races on Other Tracks.

BENNING SELECTIONS.

First race—Jack McKeon, Yorkshire Lad, Workman.
Second race—The best of the Belmont pair should win, with Campaigner and Alien next.
Third race—Frills, Kuro, Radical.
Fourth race—Phantom, Copper, Vestment.
Fifth race—Al, Powell, Town Topics, Woodwidge.
Sixth race—Weirdsome, Saladin, Royal Window.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—A cold wind, several times assuming the force of a gale, blew into the grand stand at Benning to-day, chilling the ardor and cooling the enthusiasm of the spectators. But the crowd did not go away; the race was too good.

Three Virginia horses took the first three events, all of them from Billy Garth's stables. Pater, Garth's pride, took the handicap easily; Race King beating Peter Paul for place. The withdrawal of Bohemia made Pater's work much easier.

There were ups and downs on the second event, but none of them were that Orphan Lad would win, but he romped home easily.

Al-Jalal ran second, a neck ahead of Algeria, who took third money. Then Pater made it three straight for his stables, and rode Judge White home first. The betting on White was 11 to 5. Grand Duchess made second, beating Society Bud for place.

Arletta was the best of the maidens, defeating Donna, 2 to 1, who took place from Welbourne. 5 to 1. Mettle took first money in the fifth event; Hanover Hornpipe second and Zany third.

Bellsnicker was an odds-on favorite in the sixth event, but the best he could do was to take 11 to 5, with Jack McKeon first and Martin third.

CHARLEY KELLY,
CHAMPION WRESTLERKelly's Muscular Development
Is Well-Nigh Marvelous

This "Jolly Tar" Has a Standing Challenge Against All Comers Under "One-Sixty" Limit—Wants Especially to Meet Dwyer and Grant.

If there is any man under 160 pounds in the United States, who has the faintest idea that he can put the broad shoulders of Charley Kelly, now in Richmond, to the mat, the sporting editor of this paper will receive and print the challenge and will say at the effect that the challenge will be accepted.

There were ups and downs on the second event, but none of them were that Orphan Lad would win, but he romped home easily.

Al-Jalal ran second, a neck ahead of Algeria, who took third money. Then Pater made it three straight for his stables, and rode Judge White home first. The betting on White was 11 to 5. Grand Duchess made second, beating Society Bud for place.

Arletta was the best of the maidens, defeating Donna, 2 to 1, who took place from Welbourne. 5 to 1. Mettle took first money in the fifth event; Hanover Hornpipe second and Zany third.

Bellsnicker was an odds-on favorite in the sixth event, but the best he could do was to take 11 to 5, with Jack McKeon first and Martin third.

CADETS WIN AND THE CADETS LOSE

Virginia Defeats V. M. I. and Washington and Lee Go Down Before V. P. I.

A COLD AND STIFF GALE

The V. P. I. Cadets Failed to Score Before Susong's Terrific Delivery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., April 6.—Virginia defeated the Virginia Military Institute to-day 9 to 0. Despite the cold and a stiff gale which blew across the diamond both teams put up a fast fielding game and kept the occupants of the grand-stand keyed up to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

The first Lexingtonian to reach third base was caught off the bag by his accurate throwing. Lawler put up a brilliant game at shortstop, many of his chances being quite difficult. Woodson and Rice did some opportunistic hitting, the former sending in three runs. The visitors had a splendid opportunity to score in the sixth, with the bases full, and only one hand down, Devault, however, was thrown out at the plate by Captain Graham, and Lawler pulled down Goodie's hot liner, retreating the side.

The Lexingtonians fielded sharply, with the exception of Devault. Goodie put up a clever game at bat, and Grammar covered much territory around short. His quick throwing to first was a feature of the contest.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—"I'm no hog; I've won enough for to-day," said J. Gruff, of Leesburg, Va., yesterday afternoon as he hurried from Benning's racetrack and made a bee-line for home.

Mr. Gruff had seen Bettie Landan quoted at 100 to 1 in the betting and had laid $10 on her. The filly won by a nose from the odds-on-favorite, Al Powell, and Gruff was handed $1,000. He trembled with excitement as the bookmaker's cashier counted him off the money.

The filly's victory was the surprise of the meeting, but the Virginian was not the only one who profited by it. A postal clerk was awakened early this morning by a friend who rushed into his room with a tale of a strange dream, in which he had heard the cry, "Bettie wins!" The clerk went to the track and bet $4 on the filly at 80 to 1. He won $320. The friend who had the dream gets his out of that.

Costly Errors in the Second Inning Decided the Game

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., April 6.—The Virginia Polytechnic Institute this afternoon won on Wilson field, defeated Washington and Lee 4 to 2, in an interesting game of base ball.

Varsity lost the game in the second inning by three costly errors, which allowed three runs to the Polytechnic. Porter twirled a great game for Washington and Lee and the playing of outfield for Virginia Polytechnic was good. Cooper scored them a home run.

This is the first game won by Polytechnic over the Lexington boys for six years. Varsity promised to even up matters at the second game with Polytechnic tomorrow.
